Dear Aaron,

Thank you so much for your letter which we received last month. Archbishop Justin has asked me to reply on his behalf.

Of course St Alban is a saint close to the hearts of us here in the UK as he is our first martyr. Please be assured of our joyful prayers for you on your seventieth anniversary that the same courage and faith that marked the witness of Alban may be yours.

Speaking personally it was a great joy to meet you at Camp Allen last year. I trust we have opportunity to meet in the not too distant future.

With gratitude for your ministry and every blessing for your celebrations on Palm Sunday.

Grace + Peace,

Chris
